DAILY SENTINEL.

WM. E. PELL, PROPRIETOR.

FROM GEORGIA.

GEORGIA CONSERVATIVE CONVENTION.

MACON, Dec. 6.—The Conservative Convention finished up matters and adjourned at eleven this morning, after adopting a spirited platform.

The preamble acknowledges obligations to adhere to the Union and support the general governments in all legal and proper measures, and claims from the government the due performance of reciprocal duty, to extend to us, in common with the people of the whole country, the protection guaranteed by the Constitution of our fathers; that a manly protest against the bad public policy is a duty as well as a right of every American citizen, and this without factious opposition to the government, or interruption of the public harmony; silence under wrong may be construed as an endorsement.

A resolution was passed that we recognize the duty to sustain law and order, to support cheerfully all the constitutional measures of the United States Government and to maintain the rights of all classes under enlightened and liberal laws.

2d. That the people of Georgia accept in good faith the legitimate results of the late war and renew their expressions of allegiance to the United States, and reiterate the determination to maintain inviolate the Constitution framed by our fathers.

3d. Protest dispassionately yet firmly against the so called Reconstruction acts of Congress and against the vindictive partisan administration of those acts as wrong in principle, oppressive in action and ruinous to the States of the South, as well as hurtful to the true welfare of every portion of our common country, leading directly if not intentionally to the permanent supremacy of the negro race in all the States where those laws are enforced.

4th. Protest in a like spirited manner against the policy of the dominant party in Congress, which seeks to inflict upon the States of the South a bad government, as we will not only to both races in the South and the people of all parts of the Union, but is a crime against civilization and humanity, which it is the duty of all right minded men everywhere to discountenance and condemn.

5th. That we enter on record, in the name and behalf of the people of this State, our solemn protest against the assembling of the Convention, which we affirm, with evidence before us, has been ordered under pretence of votes illegally authorized, forcibly procured, fraudulently received and falsely counted, as we believe, and in view of the solemn responsibilities of the issues involved, we declare that we will forever hold the work of traitors to Constitution by such authority, with intent to be forced by military power on the free people of this ancient Commonwealth, as a crime against our people, against continuance of free government, against the peace of society, against the spirits in the ballot box and against the dignity and character of representative institutions.

6th and 7th. Provide for the appointment of a Central Executive Committee by the President, to call a Convention of the Conservative party when necessary, and to indicate the proper time and policy best adopted to promote the public good.

8th. Recommends Conservatives to organize in every county both with and report organization to the Executive Committee.

9th. Appoints H. V. Johnson, A. H. Chappell, R. H. Hill, Warren Akon and T. L. Guerry a committee to prepare and publish an address to the people of Georgia and the United States, setting forth the true sentiments of the white race of this State and the deplorable condition of the people, and the ruin which the enforcement of the reconstruction acts will bring on all classes in the South.

The preamble and resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Resolutions were also adopted thanking the North for the support of the principles of free government in the late election and the people of that section for timely aid in provisions, &c., rendered the suffering people of the State, during the past year.

The Convention was harmonious and adjourned in the best of spirits.

THE RECONSTRUCTION FRAUD A FAILURE.

No American having that particular sense of freedom which wrought its impregnable record on Bunker Hill, at Eutaw, in Independence Hall in 1776, or in the State capitals before 1789, has ever expected anything but failure of measures by the side of which British tyranny was a boon and a benefaction. But it is something to find presses which, like the Springfield Republican, did not scruple to urge the unprincipled abuse of establishing negro government for the free people of the District of Columbia, declare now that the testimony even of the hired incendiaries, slanderers, and false witnesses of the Congressional oligarchy "is conclusive of the fact that reconstruction is working badly." Well may that journal, with a freedom yet enjoyed by its conductors, by the force of principles which it has frequently assailed, and which it has helped to deny to their Southern fellow-white freemen, say, in reference to the statements of this man T. W. Conway:

"We should see precisely the same thing in Ohio or Connecticut, if the General Government should attempt to establish negro suffrage in those States, with probably more decided exhibitions of spite towards the negro. Mr. Conway's evidence is conclusive as to the fact that reconstruction is working badly. If Congress decides that it is right in principle, and is not to be changed in any respect, then it must either provide means for putting it through and maintaining it by force—for it cannot stand a day without such military support as shall be equivalent to perpetual war—or it must take the ground, that as the South is still the rebellious for restoration to self-government, it must be remanded to exclusive military government till it shows a better mind."

We have emphasized for the Republican the cardinal point, that the attempt to impose negro government on the white freemen of Northern States would provoke extreme hostility and unpassable malice in the bosoms of that people; not, we may suggest, because they are "loyal," but because they are white. In Indiana, a few days ago, a negro dishonored a white woman. He was seized by the populace and hung to the nearest tree. There are few such opportunities for testifying white malevolence in Indiana; there are many in the South. If the repugnance of the Indiana lynchers had been inflamed by Government subjection of them to negro power, what would they have left undone to manifest that hatred? Yet, while in Indiana and elsewhere in the North, this feeling is indulged by oversight, if not encouraged by applause, though utterly unjustifiable on any special grounds, in the South, with causes of exasperation irresistible to human nature, the least indication of manly rashness is spread on every bulletin-board, elaborated from every pulpit, and denounced on every street-corner as proof of the unfitness of Southern citizens for participation in the government of the Constitution.

Let us hope there is an early end to this really shameful injustice. It is beginning to sicken the more honorable even of its own authors.—Nat. Intel.

PRIMUS INTER PARES.—General Ord has had the good fortune to outstrip all his competing satraps in the race for odious distinction. He went to his province with a high character for moderation, and we remember the regret experienced in Virginia when it transpired that the First District had not been assigned to his command, but now scarcely a day passes that the wires do not bring account of some fresh and more glaring outrage perpetrated by this vindictive tyrant upon his helpless subjects. The latest is his refusal to allow the relatives of a fallen Confederate to place a tomb stone above their dead. Cannot Mr. Johnson find another Hancock, with whom to replace this man who is daily disgracing the uniform he wears, and alienating a well disposed people from the Government under which they live? General Ord is obviously an impediment to reconstruction.—Pet. Index.

NORTH CAROLINA,

WESTERN NORTH CAROLINA,

WILMINGTON AND WELDON,

ATLANTIC AND NORTH CAROLINA,

WILMINGTON AND MANCHESTER,

CHARLOTTE AND SOUTH CAROLINA R. R.,

And their connections.

Time Quick and Rates Low.

THIS NEW TRUNK LINE FORMS A GREAT FREIGHT ROUTE between Baltimore and Weldon, Warrenton, Raleigh, Hillsboro', Lexington, Salisbury, Morganton, Charlotte, Lincolnton, Goldsboro', Newbern, Beaufort, Wilmington, Chesterville, Winnsboro', Columbia, Summerville, Manchester, and all intermediate points on and near those great Railways and their connections.

The Powhatan Steamers connect at Petersburg with Petersburg Railway for all points in the Carolinas. Cars are run alongside of Steamers' Wharf and goods transferred with careful handling. Cars are run through without breaking bulk between Petersburg and Raleigh, Charlotte, Goldsboro', Wilmington, &c., &c. This Inland Line possesses many advantages over a Sea route. Marine risk is small and insurance is comparatively nothing. The Wharf of the Powhatan Steamers being situated in the very centre of the great shipping district of Baltimore, renders it convenient to shippers, and drayage is very small.

Great attention paid to consignments of Cotton, Corn, Wheat, Rosin, &c., &c. All produce forwarded at the lowest possible rates.

☞ To insure transportation over this Inland Fast Line, mark all goods, whether Northward or Southward bound, "VIA PETERSBURG."

☞ Freight landed in Baltimore day following delivery by the Steamers.

Through Receipts are given and fixed rate per 100 pounds guaranteed both ways.

☞ Rates in every case same as via Bay Line and Portsmouth to and from Baltimore, Philadelphia and New York.

N. B.—With regard to last named points, freight is forwarded to and from Petersburg by Philadelphia and N. Y. Steamers.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1867.

THE IMPEACHMENT.

The most shameless and outrageous appeals to Congress to impeach President Johnson are said to have come from the Radical paper, the Standard, in this City, edited by Ex. P. G. Holden. One of the strongest reasons urged by the majority of the Impeaching Committee, for the impeachment of the President, was his alleged unconstitutional action in attempting to restore the State governments of the "rebel" States, by the appointment of rebel Provisional Governors, who could not take the test oath. The facts, so far as North Carolina is concerned, show that the hardest hit contained in the report of the majority literally demolished the Ex. P. G. himself, who, of late, has become the warmest advocate of impeachment in North Carolina.

Prior to the enunciation of President Johnson's policy, in regard to the reconstruction of North Carolina, in 1865, Mr. Holden and several of his friends were invited to Washington City by the President, for consultation. About the same time, three other prominent gentlemen of the State, Messrs. Moore, Swain and Eaton, were also invited. It has also been stated that Holden was the only man in the State, at that time, who approved of the President's policy. In opposition to the advice of some who were consulted, he was appointed Povisional Governor, and it is well known that, during his entire incumbency, he at all times unequivocally endorsed the President's programme. Finding that the support of the President neither secured him the Governorship by the voice of the people, nor promised future advancement, he became Radical, and has grown more intensely so than any one in the State, in the same length of time. He has actually desired the impeachment of the President, if for nothing else, for the unlawful act of appointing him Provisional Governor of North Carolina, when he could not take the test-oath!

But impeachment is dead! We had not looked for so signal a rebuke to the impeachers and violent men in the Radical party, as the action of Congress, on Saturday last, has given it. We expected to see a direct vote avoided, and the mortification of the extremists saved by quietly laying the whole matter on the table, but the whole country has the gratification of seeing this great iniquity completely crushed by the votes of Republicans themselves, who begin to wake up to the unmistakable teachings of the voice of the people in the late elections.

Nor are we entirely without hope, that the returning sobriety and prudence of Congress will, when such villainous attempts at framing Constitutions as have been shown in Alabama are presented to it for approval, signally rebuke them by immediate rejection. We cannot conceive that there is yet corruption enough in any party in this country to sanction so infamous, so outrageous and ruinous a burlesque on organic law, as those Radical "Constitutions" exhibit.

MILITARY ARRESTS.

Some weeks ago, the Agents of the Associated Press at Washington City published a telegram, professedly based upon the official report of Gen. Canby to Gen. Grant, to the effect that, up to the 30th. of Sept. last, there had been 959 military trials of persons within the Second Military District, embracing North and South Carolina.

Upon this exhibit, which did not particularize the various classes of persons or crimes embraced in the number tried by military tribunals, we instituted a comparison between the administration of the First and Second Military Districts in this regard, in which we reiterated the statement, that, under the administration of Gen. Schofield, not one case of military trial of a civilian is said to have taken place, while, under the administration of Gens. Sickles and Canby, according to the telegram, 959 persons had been tried before military tribunals.

Gen. Miles, of this city, called our attention to the matter and insisted that the telegram had erred. We at once made the correction.

We are now indebted to Col. Churr, A. A. G., for an official statement, from which we gather the following facts:

The number of crimes committed in the 2nd. Military District, from 1st. Jan. to 30th. Sept. 1867, as reported by sheriffs, was 605 by whites and 1,308 by blacks—total 1,913.

The number of commitments to jail by the civil authorities, in the 2nd. Military District, from 1st. Jan. to Sept. 30th. 1867, reported by sheriffs, was 904 whites, 2,607 blacks—total 3,511.

The number of arrests of civilians made by military authority, for the same time, was 336 white, 320 black—total 656.

The total number of citizens tried by military tribunals, during the same period, was 280, instead of 959—the latter number being the whole number of trials or investigations made by the military into the conduct of both civilians and soldiers.

If the rumor in regard to Gen. Schofield's administration be correct, or approximately true, it shows a wide difference still, which, for the sake of the Constitution and civil liberty, we regret, as we are far from believing we have had more crime in North and South Carolina than in Virginia.

We beg to remind those who charge the Sentinel with having uttered an incorrect statement, in the first instance, that we simply repeated a telegraphic statement, which was not false, but which only lacked explanation to make it correctly understood.

"Mr. Ashley, of Ohio, thought the Republican party ought to buckle on its armor for a big fight this summer, and he knew of no better help than money to do the work. Congress ought immediately to amend the reconstruction act so as to allow a majority of those voting to call a Convention. As it now stands, it required a majority of the registered voters, and left it in the power of rebels and copperheads to keep the Southern States out of the Union. He wanted them all in to take part in the Presidential election. Otherwise, he wasn't so sure about success next fall. Another thing that must be done was the removal of every rebel now in office in the South. If such men as Hancock were to rule the South, there was no telling what it would lead to."

The foregoing is an extract from the published proceedings of the Radical caucus, held in Washington a few days since.

No one will be surprised at the declaration of this man, Ashley, that "he knew of no better help than money" to promote the Radicalization of the South. It comes, with peculiar grace from a man who subornel witnesses to implicate the President in the assassination conspiracy, who bought testimony to bolster up his abortive attempt at impeachment, and whose profligate venality, as an individual and as a representative, is a matter of record.

In point of actual fact, however, Ashley is not far wrong. The class of white men upon whom he proposes to operate, in the South, are fully accessible to metallic influences. They "go in" for the spoils, and they have no higher motive of action.—They are pecuniary patriots, as a general rule, who can see a dollar a long ways off, while they are blind to principle and every consideration of right and justice. Greenbacks, and the prospect of office, constitute the alchemy, which has converted many a man; who did all in his power to bring on and carry on the war, into a howling Dervish of modern Radicalism. Money was poured out like water to control the recent elections in this State. Impecunious white men, and seedy darkeys, grew suddenly "flush," as the compensation of Radical itinerancy and a reward for going about and seeking to inflame the negroes against the white people of the State.

But Ashley wants the Southern States back in the Union, in time to take part in the next Presidential election—why? Because, as he virtually confesses, without their electoral vote for the Radical nominee, defeat stares them in the face. This is an important admission. It is conclusive evidence that the Radical leaders, notwithstanding all their affected under-rating of the teachings of the late elections at the North, fully comprehend the significance of the great reaction which has taken place and is still progressing. It is, besides, the true key to the entire Radical programe. They want the Union restored, not as a matter of right and in the interests of civilization, humanity and civil liberty, but simply as a means of party success and party aggrandizement. Ashley's admission, moreover, fully demonstrates that the sole reason why the Radicals favor negro suffrage, is that they may use it as the means of perpetuating that rule, from which the white masses of the North have unmistakably determined to hurl them. It is tantamount to the declaration that negro supremacy is the sole and forlorn hope of Radicalism. It is, finally, a "caving in" and giving up of the contest. It sounds like the funeral dirge of the pestilent iniquity, of which this creature Ashley is a fit representative and exponent.

The shameless avowal that "if such men as Hancock are to rule the South, there is no telling what it would lead to," conveys a complete illustration of the character of Radicalism. Nothing will satisfy it but a defiance of law, a disregard of all the sacred muniments of civil liberty, and a complete obliteration of all the landmarks of Republican, constitutional government.—For the exhibition of some respect for these things, a man who won a brilliant name in fighting for the Union is classed as a "rebel," by one whose shibboleth of loyalty is "how much will it pay." And we expect to hear men in the South, who taught secession and hatred of the government and of the Yankees, for years, repeating the cry that "Hancock is a rebel!"

HUNGRY.—The new fangled delegates to the Alabama, Louisiana and Virginia Conventions exhibit far more appreciation of the character of the times in the question of per diem allowance, than in anything else In Alabama they fixed upon $8 per day, in Louisiana upon $10, and in Virginia upon $8. We doubt if many of these fellows ever before made more than $1.50 per day. We should hesitate for some time to employ any of them for even that price.

WE HAVE already announced the resignation of Chief Justice Handy, of the Supreme Court of Mississippi. We now learn, from the Jackson Clarion, that Judges Elliott and Harris, the remaining Judges of that Court, have resigned, leaving the State without a Supreme Court, with no possible chance of the Governor making such temporary appointments as will be in keeping with the dignity of the position, or consistent with the important and responsible duties devolving upon such high judicial officers.

A CASE NOT PROSECUTED.—The New York Evening Post makes the following extraordinary statement. If the poor dealers and distillers at the South could get a few such opportunities of swindling, it would very much diminish the drain by the internal revenue tax:

"A Government officer obtained proof that a heavy dealer swindled the Government. He called on the latter, and intimated that he must be paid handsomely, otherwise he would inform on him. The dealer excused himself at the time on the plea of business, and said if his friend would call in the afternoon he would talk to him. The greedy officer called in the afternoon, and after having made a plain demand for black mail, a brother of the dealer stepped from a closet, where he had heard the conversation. The officer's mouth was effectually closed, and it did not cost anything to do it.

EXPENSE OF RECONSTRUCTION.—The sum of $190,000 has been expended in the registration of the voters of this military district. The fund is now exhausted, and nothing more can be paid until Congress makes another appropriation for reconstruction.—Rich. Whig.

STATE ITEMS.

——The Wilmington Journal mentions a serious fire in Lumberton, N. C., which destroyed the stores occupied by Geo. H. Kelly, Esq., and Dr. R. M. Norment. The fire originated in the store occupied by Mr. Kelly, and was occasioned by accident. The Journal says:

"About seven or eight o'clock the clerk had occasion to draw some kerosene oil, and in doing so placed the candle within a few feet of the barrel. Suddenly he discovered the whole air around the candle in flames, which was caused by the gas escaping from the barrel. Very soon the fire communicated itself to the can in which the oil was drawn, and before it could be extinguished the whole interior of the building was in flames. A portion of the stock was destroyed. The drug store of Dr. R. M. Norment, adjoining, was also burnt to the ground, but most of the goods were saved. Mr. Kelly's loss is estimated at about $2,500, half of which was covered by insurance. The other losses we have not learned."

——The remains of Lieut. Theodore Deems, son of Rev. C. F. Deems, D. D., were interred in Oakdale Cemetery, on Thursday last, having been brought to Wilmington from Gettysburg, where he fell while gallantly battling on the 3d of July, 1863.

——A meeting of the Conservatives of New Hanover was held in Wilmington, last evening, on the call of Messrs. Person, Strange and Hall, members of the State and District Executive Committee.

——The Wilmington Star says:

"The Military Commission convened in this city, by order of General Canby, is still in session here, although its members are unable to do much in the way of business. There are a number of cases to be tried, but nothing can be done relative to them, without special orders from District Headquarters, for which the Commission has been waiting. They now meet and adjourn from day to day, while awaiting these instructions."

Meanwhile, the members of the Commission are receiving their perquisites and per diem, all of which is charged to the expenses of "reconstruction," which the people of the country, North and South, are taxed to pay.

——A friend, writing to us from one of the lower Counties on the condition and affairs of the University, expresses the following views:

"A considerable clatter by opposing extremes has been raised against the time-honored University. That Institution, the pride of our State, has been greatly injured, simply because it did not espouse the political views of selfish politicians. And it looks as though the people of our State will allow it thus to be damaged and perhaps destroyed.

David L. Swain has done more for the character of the State, and more to build up the University, than any other man. The Faculty at the University is equal to any anywhere.

I am out of patience with the folly of our people.

I have spent some money in educating my children at the University. I have more boys to send there. But if Gov. Swain and the present Faculty are suspended, I shall quit."

CONSERVATIVE MEETING IN GATES.

A large portion of the citizens of Gates County assembled in the town of Gatesville, on the 4th. inst. The meeting was called to order by appointing R. H. Ballard, Esq., Chairman, and John Brady, Secretary.

The Chairman called on M. L. Eure, Esq., to explain the objects of the meeting, whereupon Mr. Eure came forward and entertained the crowd with a spirited and eloquent speech of twenty or thirty minutes' duration, in which he earnestly urged the people to arouse from their lethargy and ward off the yoke of Radicalism.

On motion, the following persons were appointed delegates to the State Convention, to be held in the City of Raleigh, to wit: Dr. Elisha Williams, Jas. E. Everett, John T. West, Dr. H. A. Morgan, Wiley Riddick, Arthur Willey, John J. Gatling, Joseph Smith, A. Edwards, R. Gatling Jr., Mills H. Eure, R. H. Ballard, Elisha Parker, John F. Parker, Samuel E. Smith, Dr. H. C. Willey, John Brady, Dr. O. B. Savage, Joshua S. Whidbee, Thos. B. Walton, Mills Roberts, W. P. Roberts, Dr. Thos. N. Nixon, Dr. Jos. Parker, H. C. Williams, W. B. S. Riddick and James Hill.

Resolved, That the proceedings of the meeting be sent to the Raleigh Sentinel and Edenton Transcript.

Resolved, That the thanks of the meeting be tendered the Chairman and Secretary.

On motion, the meeting adjourned.

R. H. BALLARD, Chairman.
JOHN BRADY, Sec'y.

THE MENAGERIE THAT BROKE LOOSE—ESCAPE OF WILD ANIMALS—THEY FIGHT FOR HOURS.

The following additional particulars are given of the unique occurrence lately in the South by which a menagerie was let loose:

"It appears the entire menagerie was enroute from Montgomery to Mobile, and a broken rail precipitated seven cars down an embankment forty feet from summit to base.

Most of the cages were more or less damaged by the accident, and those containing the Himalaya bear, the Bengal tiger, the Thibet bear, and Brazilian tiger were so much shattered as to liberate the occupants and permit them to escape to the adjoining forest, whence they were speedily attracted by the carcass of a deer that had been in one of the cages and was killed by the casualty. Now occurred one of the most remarkable contests of brutes that has ever taken place on this continent. During four hours the tiger and bears and the hyena contended for the mastery. Nor did the terrified attaches of the menagerie dare to interfere. The noise of the contest is described as being appalling in the extreme, and did not cease until the participants had satisfied the cravings of their appetite, after which the Himalaya bear and one of the tigers played together as cat and kitten.

At this juncture Capt. Hall, the "Lion King," and former companion of Dr. Livingstone, together with one or two assistants, made an essay to recapture the animals. The cages containing the animals were discharged of their occupants and brought to a close proximity to the fugitives. The bears and hyenas were then lassoed and dragged into the dens. The driver was instantly killed by the accident, and the company sustained a loss of two lions, a panther and a leopard."

The word "white" has been stricken from the ordinances governing the District of Columbia. If the word "decent" is found therein, it should share the same fate.

"Gen. Mower," who is cutting up such antics in New Orleans, is from the region of New London, Conn. He was a carpenter by trade. His wife's mother was a respectable "washer woman"

For the Sentinel.

LOW FREIGHTS—HOW THEY WORK.

It is well known by the public, that there is what is called an "Air Line Route," from New York to New Orleans, via Portsmouth, Charlotte, Columbia, etc. This Route passes through North Carolina.

At a meeting held recently, by the Board of Trade of the city of Columbia, South Carolina, public attention was called to the practical operation of the freight rates by this "Air Line Route." Heretofore, freights from upper Georgia and the parts of South Carolina that lie contiguous, found their way to Augusta, and thence to Charleston, to be shipped by water to New York. The cost of transportation was lower that way than by the railroads to Charlotte, Weldon and Portsmouth.

The present low tariff via this "Air Line Route," places this Route, via Raleigh, in competition with this Charleston route; and will consequently throw a large body of the Ga. and S. C. freights on our route. Instead of sending cotton, etc., from the upper part of S. C. and Ga., to Augusta and Charleston, it will come this way, on account of the low freights and speed. In other words, it will cost less money and time to send a bale of cotton from the territory above referred to, or, vice versa, a package of merchandise from N. Y. to upper S. C. and Ga.,—it will take less time and money through our State, than via Charleston.

In correspondence with these through freights, the N. C. R. R. has lately lowered its way or local tariff, so that even over a part of the "Air Line Route," freights may be low enough to enable people at one end of the road to buy produce at the other end. Although not literally as low per mile, the local rates are made to approximate the through rates as nearly as they can be afforded.

We date a new impetus to N. C. railroading to this low freight scheme. The times are hard, money is scarce; let every thing be done at the lowest rates they can be afforded at, and some part of the pressure will be removed. H.

BILLS BEFORE CONGRESS.

WASHINGTON, December 6.—In the House to day Mr. Ashley, of Ohio, introduced a bill to fix the time for holding elections for representatives to Congress, and for other purposes. It provides that the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November in the year 1868, and the same day in November every four years thereafter, shall be fixed for the election of representatives to Congress in each of the States of the Union, for the term commencing on the 4th of March next succeeding the year above named.

Mr. Paine, of Wisconsin, introduced a bill to amend an act to provide for the more efficient government of the rebel States, passed March 2d, 1867, which repeals the clause requiring a majority of the names registered to legalize a convention, and substitutes therefor a majority of the votes cast.

The bill introduced by Mr. Ashley, of Ohio, in the House to day, "to facilitate the restoration of the late rebel States," provides:

Section 1. That the conventions which have been, or may be hereafter, held in the rebel States be authorized to elect a provisional governor and an executive council of six competent citizens, to administer the government of the State in such manner as the convention electing them may prescribe.

Section 2. Officers so elected to take the oath prescribed by act of July 2, 1862. Pay to be fixed by the convention, and paid out of the State treasury.

Section 3. Governor, by advice and consent of his council, to have power to remove all civil officers who participated in the rebellion, who have opposed reconstruction, or who have neglected or refused to take the oath of July 2, 1862, and to appoint others under such rules as the convention electing them may prescribe.

Section 4. After meeting and organization of the convention the authority given district commanders to remove and appoint civil officers is revoked.

Section 5. Substitutes a majority of the votes cast for a majority of all names registered to elect a convention.

From the Richmond Enquirer and Examiner.

An outrage so monstrous as that which is now being attempted upon the disarmed South, cannot be successful without to the army of the United States is assigned the loathsome duty of laying the foundation and sustaining the edifice of negro supremacy. To this vilest of uses, do the Radicals propose to turn the soldiers whose valor "saved the Union." For years to come they must enforce the brutal rule of the negro over men of their own color and race. They are to see that the work of Africanizing ten States is thoroughly done. The exaltation of Cuffee is to be made the special duty of Conservative gentlemen from West Point, who know that he is no more capable of governing than a kangaroo or a gorilla.

A splendid future truly is this which Radicalism holds forth to the veterans of the great civil war! Gentlemen of the Federal army! behold the Radicals' great reward for your four years' devotion to your country! To you is assigned the duty of holding bayonets at the breasts of the white men of ten States, while the negro insults, degrades and dishonors them. You are required to see that the Africanization of the South is thorough and that every vestige of Caucasian civilization and refinement is trampled under the feet of illiterate and savage negroes! You are to be the real victims of Radical malignity, and are to be pitied as much as the white men of the South. For when this hideous conspiracy against the white race comes to an end, and its authors are pilloried by history for their crime against God and man, you must share the eternal odium which awaits all who have aided and abetted in this foul wrong. In vain will you plead the orders of your superiors when the wrath of the nation, scathing as the red lightnings of Heaven, blasts and scorches all who have helped to make the disarmed white men of the South the helots of the lowest and most degraded of all the races of man. Better far to have died in battle, when the soldiers of the South were armed defiantly confronting you upon many a well-contested field, than to have been forced by malignant, cowardly and selfish politicians to prop the loathsome cause of negro domination with your swords and bayonets!

THE CONVENTION CARRIED IN SOUTH CAROLINA.—Official information from Gen. Canby's headquarters, received here to-night, is to the effect that a Convention in South Carolina is probably called, notwithstanding the apparent failure at first indicated.—The returns from the interior show that a larger vote was polled in the upper counties than on the seacoast. The Convention in North Carolina will probably be fixed for the early part of January, and that for South Carolina somewhat later in the same month.—Wash. Letter.

DIED:

At his residence in Chatham County, N. C., on the 17th of November, 1867, WILLIAM MERRITT, Esq., in the 83rd year of his age.

The deceased was a man highly esteemed by his neighbors, was a kind parent, gave his children a good education and a good beginning in the world. For visiting the sick and administering to their necessities, he has been surpassed by but few. He was also liberal to the poor, many of whom will mourn his death. During his illness he expressed much anxiety about the probable suffering of this class the present winter, and administered to their aid during his sickness.

He was a Christian man, and died in full hope of a blessed immortality. Though not a member, he was in sentiment an Episcopal Methodist, attended their ministry and was liberal in their support. It was the happy privilege of the writer to visit him often during his illness. He always expressed a strong and abiding faith in Christ, his Savior. In Christ's atonement was all his hope. He often said, during his illness, that the grave was to his mind the sweetest place on earth. He had no fear of death, and had a desire to depart and be with Christ. He died without a groan or a struggle, passing away as one going into a calm and refreshing sleep.

"Let me die the death of the righteous, and let my last end be like his." G. W. P.

Valuable Lands and Mills for Sale.

PURSUANT TO A DECREE OF THE COURT of Equity for Johnston County, at Fall Term, 1867, I shall, on Saturday, the 18th day of January next, on the premises, proceed to sell, at public sale, that valuable property, near Boon Hill, in said County, known as consisting of fifteen hundred and ninety-five acres of Land, lying near the North Carolina Railroad, and within one and a half miles of Boon Hill Depot.
The said lands are the first quality of Cotton lands. About 300 acres are cleared, and have been in cultivation. The rest is in primitive forest, and is well timbered, although a considerable quantity of Pine Timber has been cut off.
The improvements consist of an excellent Saw Mill, with a forty-two inch circular Saw, run by a Jonvals Turbine Wheel, which, for beauty of work and quickness of cutting, is unsurpassed.—There is also a tram road from the Mill to the Railroad, where there is a turnout. Also a Grist Mill, which will grind 60 bushels of corn per day. Also a Store and Office, a Blacksmith Shop, and four houses for operatives, and beautifully situated on a hill, containing eight rooms, to which are attached all necessary outhouses and Stables, with two Gardens, one of which contains one of the largest and finest Scuppernong Arbors in the State.
The water on the place is excellent, and it is one of the healthiest locations in the low country.
TERMS OF SALE:
One hundred and fifty dollars cash; four thousand two hundred and fifty dollars on the 4th Monday in March, 1868, and notes at six and twelve months from the day of sale, bearing interest. For the balance, bonds with approved security will be required, and the title retained until the purchase money is paid. Possession given on the first day of February, 1868.

DR. J. J. LAWRENCE—Dear Sir—Please send me immediately per Express to Tarboro, two dozen more bottles of your Rosadalis. I have carefully examed its Formula, and have used it in my practice in a number of cases. I am well pleased with it. I think it, beyond doubt, the best Alterative I ever used. I have tried it in several cases of Scrofula and Scrofulous Affections, &c., with much satisfaction to myself and patients. I have also used it in Secondary and Teritary Syphilis, [one a terrible case of eight years' standing,] in which it acted with surprising and satisfactory effect—making a quick and thorough cure. I have, therefore, no hesitation in recommending it to Physicians and others, as the most reliable Alterative now known.
Respectfully yours, &c.,

A Wonderful Cure of Scrofulous White Swelling.
HOME CERTIFICATE.

I hereby certify, that last September I was attacked with White Swelling of the left knee—and also with an enlargement of the glands of the neck—[one tumor reached a large size.] The swelling of the knee was enormous, and was attended with the most excruciating pains. I was so reduced that I was confined to my room over three months. My leg was so completely drawn up, that I could not bend it at all. I tried various remedies, and they failed to give me any relief. I was in this condition when I commenced taking Dr. Lawreuce's Rosadalis. The swelling in the knee and neck began to subside before I took all of the first bottle. By the time I took the second bottle, the swelling of the neck entirely disappeared and that of the knee nearly so. After taking three bottles I found myself completely well—able to walk as well as ever, &c.

Rosadalis cures Carbuncles, Boils, Pimples, &c.
Certificate from an old and much respected citizen of Greene County, now a resident of Wilson, N. C.
I hereby certify that, during the summer and fall of 1866, that I was severely afflicted with Carbuncles—having had as many as fourteen large Carbuncles, and twelve ordinary Boils. I suffered so much from them that I could not get out of the house half the time for several months. Being induced to try Dr. Lawrence's Rosadalis, I was entirely cured by the use of one bottle of that truly valuable medicine.

Consumption, in its Early Stages, can be Cured.
BALTIMORE, Md., March 4th, 1867.
Dear Dr. Lawrence—My daughter having been cured of a deeply seated disease of the lungs by your "Rosadalis," I feel it my duty to make the fact known to you for the benefit of others. She suffered nealy two years with a hard cough, which troubled her day and night; at last the consumptive form, glossy eyes, night sweats, together with the cough, told too plainly that it was Consumption, beyond question, eating at her vitals. Our Physician's remedies brought no relief. She was advised to try your Rosadalis, as a tonic—which she did—imagine my surprise and gratification, when I found her appetite returning. Slowly she regained her strength, her cough and night sweats gradually ceased, and she is now, after taking five bottles of your medicine, apparently as well as ever.
Yours respectfully,
Mrs. E. ANN SMITH.

Fifty thousand bushel of cotton seed wanted at Neuse Oil Mill: Dr. W. R. Miller.

A GEM OF A STORE.—W. H. Thompson, Watchmaker and Jeweller, at his old stand on Fayetteville Street, has just received an elegant assortment of everything in his line. As the times are hard, and in order to make his little establishment still more attractive, he has added a limited stock of choice Confectionery and other delicacies. All are arranged on the shelves with the proprietor's proverbial taste and neatness, presenting an inviting aspect. Look in, and you will say, with us, that Thompson's is indeed "a gem of a place."

MAYOR'S COURT.—John Campbell, alias John Alston, colored, charged with stealing a lot of lumber from Osborn Hunter, colored, was returned to the County Court.

Quinten Bryan, charged with making an assault upon Major Carr, colored, was returned to the County Court.

Y. M. C. A.—There will be a meeting of the Young Men's Christian Association, at the Presbyterian Session-house, this evening, at 7 o'clock. A punctual attendance is desired.

RETURNED.—Bishop Atkinson and the Rev. Richard Hines, who have been in attendance upon the Pan Anglican Council, returned from Europe on the 30th. We have been pleased to see Mr. Hines in this city.

Bishop Atkinson is at present sojourning in New York, and will shortly return to the Diocese. He is represented to be in excellent health.

The steamer upon which they returned, the City of Paris, of the Inmann line, made the trip across the Atlantic in the unprecedentedly quick time of eight days and four hours.

RUMOR.—It is rumored on the streets, that Gen. Canby has ordered the so-called Convention for this State to assemble in this city, on the 10th of January. We have not been able to trace the rumor to any reliable source.

DISORDERLY NEGROES.—We learn that the quiet of the city, on Sunday night, was much disturbed by a party of drunken negroes, who were on the streets swearing and otherwise conducting themselves in a disorderly manner. They should be ferreted out and made examples of.

MUNICIPAL OFFICERS.—The Radicals met last night, pursuant to call, at the Court House. None were invited except "Republicans." It is understood that the object was to nominate a ticket for municipal officers for this city, to take the place of the present city government. This ticket, it is said, will be presented to Gen. Canby for appointment, rather than risk an election.

We have not heard the names of the nominees, but we venture that it will be just such a ticket as could not get the support of one-fiftieth of the property holders of the city. We hope that Gen. Canby will not too hastily commit himself to any recommendations from that quarter. We presume that he is desirous of preserving the peace and quiet of the city, and that he is, at least, not an enemy to the exercise of a proper guardianship over the property of the city. If the ticket is composed of such fellows as we have heard spoken of, the property holders ought to unite in a general and earnest remonstrance against it.

FEDERAL COURT.—This tribunal is still in session. Many important cases,—among them several Bank suits,—have been continued until next term.

A very interesting suit, Atlas J. Reeves vs. G. B. Bagwell and Wm. Overby, of this City, was determined late on Saturday night. It was a case of ejectment for a piece of property, part of lot 139, in Raleigh. Reeves is from Tennessee, though formerly of North Carolina. Col. Ed. Cantwell appeared for the claimant and Gov. Bragg for the defendants. The case occupied three days and resulted in the Jury bringing in a verdict for the defendants.

Important cases on the Equity docket will be taken up the present week.

CALVIN J. ROGERS.

We insert the following, at the request of Mr. Rogers. We will simply state, that, so far as we have been able to learn, the charge against Mr. Rogers was based entirely upon the subsequent statements of Mr. R. Tilly, and perhaps others:

To the Editors of the Sentinel:

GENTLEMEN:—It having been stated in your paper, soon after the late election, that I had "imposed upon illiterate white men," and got them improperly to vote the Republican ticket, and as this statement does me great injustice, I have to request respectfully that you give the following certificates from Robert Tilley, William D. Holloway, and A. C. Jones, a place in your paper, which will show that the statement referred to has no foundation in fact.

Very Respectfully,
CALVIN J. ROGERS.

Dec. 9, 1867.

NOVEMBER 28th, 1867.

I hereby certify that Calvin J. Rogers exerted no influence at Oak Grove, Wake County, in my vote, on the day of election. I requested him to write my ticket, which he did without hesitation.

WM. D. HOLLOWAY.

I certify that I was at Oak Grove on the 19th, and heard Robert Tilley say that he voted the very ticket that he wished to vote,—the Republican Ticket. I heard one Chesly Jones endeavoring to make Mr. Tilley dissatisfied with the way he had voted and he said he voted just the way he wished to vote. I heard C. J. Rogers use no undue argument with any one to get his vote for the Republican Ticket. A. C. JONES.

STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA, }
Wake County, Nov. 28th, 1867. }

This is to certify that Calvin J. Rogers did not use any undue means to get me to vote the Republican ticket at Oak Grove, Wake County. He said he was for a Convention and the late Reconstruction Acts, and for the Republican party, as he believed that was the only party which could or would carry the State into the Union.

I am and have been a Union man, and I now believe the Republican party is right, and, therefore, I voted for that ticket.

Witness: ROBERT ✕ TILLY.

GEN. D. H. HILL.—Among the many noble, true-hearted, fearless and able champions who have bravely battled for the independence of the Southern Confederacy, there is none more deserving the esteem and respect of his own people, or of those who can appreciate true worth, devotion to principle and high personal character, than General D. H. Hill, of North Carolina. It is needless to speak here of the important and prominent part he played in the late war, or of the straightforward, consistent and independent course he has pursued since its close.—Like a true Christian gentleman, Gen. Hill has only one rule of conduct for his public that he has for his private life, and the people, therefore, know precisely where to find him—on the side of Right and Justice.

When others gave way, he remained firm; when others truckled to an unprincipled party, he held steadfast to his faith in Constitutional freedom. It was with sincere pleasure we greeted the presence of this true son of the South, this generous, hospitable, high-toned gentleman, in our editorial sanctum last week.—N. Y. Metropolitan Record.

NEW ORLEANS, December 5.—The constitutional convention yesterday proposed a resolution that the per diem and compensation of members be reduced one-half the thirteenth day from assembling. The yeas and nays were called, and the resolution was lost—47 to 37.

The following resolution was referred to the committee on the bill of rights:

Resolved, That the loyal people of the State of Louisiana, from a long experience under the white man belong in this State, present our thanks to the Thirty-ninth and Fortieth Congress; further, that we endorse every deliberation for the oppressed races of the State, and are also thankful to the Radical friends throughout the United States and elsewhere on the face of the globe. We furthermore pray that the convention assembled deliberate thoroughly upon the poor oppressed people under the same basis of Congress of 1867: that all men are created equal heretofore citizens.

Mr. Wilson gave notice that he would, to-morrow, report a bill, removing the political disabilities from 284 Alabamians, recommended by Pope and Swayne.

The Secretary of the Treasury was called on for full details of the restoration of captured and abandoned property.

House:—Among the bills offered was one exempting from taxation manufactories yielding less than $5,000 per annum. One directing the Secretary of the Treasury to use $4,000,000 in Greenbacks in purchase of bonds.

One to abolish the office of Assistant Treasurers.

One for the more effectual government of the rebel States.

One hundred and twenty-six farms, comprising nearly 8,000 acres, were added to the productive force of Florida, during the month of November.

The purchasers of the Government stock in the Dismal swamp Canal will be required to keep the Canal open.

Revenue to-day $452 000.

The people of St. Thomas are pleased with the transfer; but the merchants apprehend losses from the operation of the American tariff.

The Southern emigrants, who recently settled in Honduras feel much dissatisfied with the course of the British government towards them. Gov. Anslin had granted them land, upon which to settle, and gave them other privileges which the home government has disappointed. Many of them are about to return to the Southern States.

THE RICHMOND CONVENTION.

RICHMOND, Dec. 9, P. M.

The Convention, to-day, was visited by Gov. Pierpoint and Gov. Smythe, of New Hampshire. Both addressed the Convention, hoping that a good and wise Constitution might be framed.

Gov. Smythe urged the members to bear with the prejudices of men and with each other, and expressed the opinion that, when the passions of the present time have cooled, all will be well.

The Convention went into the consideration of the report of the Committee, fixing $8 per diem as compensation. Amendments fixing it at six and seven dollars were defeated by a decided majority.

[Oh! the hungry patriots!]

After some discussion, the $8 per diem was left in the ordinance, which was ordered to be engrossed.

A resolution was offered to appoint a Committee to enquire what cases of injustice have occurred in the administration of the civil Courts since June, 1865, and to report the best means of remedying the evils now existing in the civil government.

It was opposed by Hunnicutt, Snead and other prominent Republicans, and laid on the table.

Hunnicutt offered a resolution for the appointment of a Committee to investigate the discharge of persons for voting the Republican ticket at the late election, and report some means for relieving those thus discharged.

An amendment was offered to this, empowering the Legislature to make it a misdemeanor to discharge a person for voting as he chooses.

Another amendment was offered to incorporate in the Constitution an article disfranchising any person who discharges an employee on account of his vote. After some discussion the whole matter was laid on the table.

Senator Wilson is expected here this week.

George Ashburn moved that Foster Blodgett be temporary Chairman. Carried.

Blodgett, not being present, J. L. Dunning, was called to the Chair, and W. T. Clifton, of Chatham, was made Secretary.

There was much confusion and inability to agree upon an organization.

Campbell, negro, offered a resolution that all aspirants for President define their positions.—After considerable wrangling they adjourned till 12 to-morrow.

Active canvassing is going on for the Presidency.

The negroes held a caucus this afternoon, and settled on Hopkins as their choice.

$50 Reward.

ON SATURDAY NIGHT LAST my Horse was stolen from my premises, in Sampson County. The horse is dark-colored somewhat inclined to gray; a small spot on each side of his back, nearly white, caused probably by the saddle; a little white on one of the hind feet, near the heel. He was four years old last Spring, and is good sized, though short and not in very good order.

I have reason to believe that the horse was stolen by a black man formerly in my employ. He is slim-built with very prominent bones, eyes, about five feet ten inches high, wore a dark-colored, slouched hat, a light colored duck coat rather short, with pants of the same color as much worn.

I will pay a reward of Twenty-five dollars for the recovery of the horse, or fifty dollars for his recovery and sufficient evidence to convict the thief.

DAILY SENTINEL.

TUESDAY, DECEMBER 10, 1867.

"I SHALL BE SATISFIED."

Not here! not here! Not where the sparkling waters
Fade into ice-ribbing sands as we draw near;
Where in the wilderness each footstep falters—
"I shall be satisfied; but, O! not here!"

There is a land where every pulse is thrilling
With rapture earth's sojourners may not know,
Where heaven's repose the weary heart is stilling,
And peacefully life's time-stained currents flow.

Far out of sight while yet the flesh beholds us,
Lies the fair country where our hearts abide,
And of its bliss is naught more wondrous told us
Than these few words—"We shall be satisfied."

Be satisfied! The spirit's inward yearning
For sweet companionship and kindred minds—
The silent love that here meets no returning—
The inspiration which no language finds—

Shall they be satisfied? The soul's vague longing—
The aching void which nothing earthly fills?
O! what desires upon my soul are thronging
As I look upwards to the heavenly hills!

Thither my weak and weary steps are bending,
Saviour and Lord, with Thy frail child abide!
Guide me toward Home, where all my wandering ending,
I shall see Thee, "and shall be satisfied."

[From the Land We Love, for December.]

It is a little singular that while the loyal North has most decidedly snubbed the "beloved wife" of the "late lamented" in her energetic effort to peddle off old clothes and second-hand jewelry, the loyal men of the late rebellious South have never before shown so great a desire to get mementoes of "the martyr of liberty," and especially his precious likenesses, pictured on a green-back ground. These are eagerly sought for on the high-ways and by-ways, in lanes and hedges and in——other people's letters. A day seldom passes without our hearing of the loss of some letter containing these inestimable pictures, which were intended for our office, and to increase our growing loyalty. Some days, we hear of four or five missing letters with their loyal cargoes—All of which is much to the detriment of the full development of our "latent unionism." Now if it be lawful for ex-rebels to ask a favor of men who have always been loyal—since the battle of Gettysburg—we would respectfully and earnestly beg them to forward the letters after they have abstracted the portraits of the nation's idol.—We dislike to disappoint our subscribers, and would like to get their names. We take it for granted that the loyal officials only value the letters for the sake of the portraits aforesaid, and that they can have no reasonable objection to forwarding the letter paper. To our friends, we would say that it is only vexatious folly to attempt to send green-backs through the mail.

Locke, in his Essays, contends that every man is insane upon some subject, and that all men have noticed oddities, peculiarities, and strangenesses in their neighbors and acquaintances. He attributes this universal madness to a "wrong connexion of ideas," by which a fantasy is associated with a real fact, in such a way, that the man cannot separate the ideal from the true. Or as he expresses the thought: "besides this, there is another connexion of ideas wholly owing to chance or custom: ideas, that in themselves are not at all of kin, come to be so united in some men's minds that it is very hard to separate them; they always keep in company and the one no sooner at any one time comes into the understanding, but its associate appears with it."

It is probably owing to this species of madness, resulting from a wrong connexion of ideas that the words "truly loyal" and the Eighth Commandment are inseparably connected in the Southern mind, so that "they always keep in company, and the one no sooner, at any time, comes into the understanding, but its associate appears with it." We sincerely deplore this unhappy association, and wish that it could be otherwise. But as there is now no North, no South, no East and no West—only one grand, free, united and happy country—we in good old North Carolina have a right to imitate the sentimentality of New England and mourn over the errors, the frailties and the stealing of the loyal men, who ought to set holy examples to their rebellious and sinful neighbors.

The errors in regard to Confederate forces are so gross that we fear they can never be corrected. We have recently examined a history published in Baltimore, and which aims to be just to the South, and yet it estimates the Southern force at Sharpsburg at 100,000 men!—a higher estimate by 3,000 than Gen. McClellan puts it. We have seen it stated that Gen. Lee's estimate is 33,000 and it is thus given by Dabney. Now we think that we calculated Lee's force at the time from data, which could not be erroneous, and it amounted to just 27,000. If there is any mistake in it, the error is on the side of excess. We feel sure that the Southern force was under rather than over this number. Our line was so thin that when broken, the enemy thought that the skirmish line and not the line of battle was broken.

So the Confederate strength at South Mountain has, we believe, never been set down by our late enemies at less than 40,000. It was, in fact, about 5,000 until 3 o'clock in the afternoon, when Longstreet came up.

Gen. Casey claims in his official report that his works at Seven Pines were assaulted by 30,000 men. They were carried by 9,000.

It was a grim joke of Mr. Lincoln that he had discovered that the Confederates had 3,000,000 of men in the field, because he had 1,000,000, and his men were always getting overpowered by having an odds of three to one against them!

It seems that some loyal North Carolinians attended the negro Convention, at Raleigh, expecting, good simple souls! that their colored friends would be highly honored thereby, and would give them the upper seats in the synagogue. The Address complains touchingly, that the honors were not conferred upon these loyal sons of the old North State, but upon persons who were not natives of the State—euphony for Radical emissaries. To our mind there is something inexpressibly comic in this picture, of the loyal whites standing with smiling faces listening to hear sable Chesterfield courteously saying, "dear brothers, come up higher," instead of which Sambo, in his coarsest corn-field dialect, blurts out, "the white trash from Nort Calliner will take de back seats and dem wot fout to set in tree will set on de platfom!" Isn't it rich! It beats Longstreet's pun about the peace-offering. It is almost equal to the Congressional joke about the insecurity of life and property at the South, and the necessity of placing these little matters in the hands of the negroes to make them safe!

Oh! that some Hogarth or Cruikshanks might do justice to the scene! oh! that some skillful cuisinier might serve up from it a savory mess for the Haversack!

Loyal brothers of North Carolina! let a loyal editor give you a piece of advice.

When gentlemen go to another man's table, they are expected to eat what is set before them without grumbling. Good taste and good manners alike demand this. When you became the guests of the negro, you had no right to expect anything but negro fare. Don't whine about the coarse food they set before you. People will only laugh at you, and Sambo may prove a very Cuffy to you. The emissaries of hate and ruin have succeeded in making broad and high "the middle wall of partition" between the races. You can't break it down, and your puny efforts will only subject you to ridicule. Fortunately, or unfortunately, you were born white and you will be more respected, (excuse the pun) if you do not desert your color.

THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER.

This Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine

IS OFFERED TO THE Public as a ready, certain and speedy means of preventing LARGE CONFLAGRATIONS.

Until the invention of the

Portable, Self-Acting Fire Engine,

Fires have been met by means too slow, too late and too cumbrous. But few persons in this country have the advantage of large hand or Steam Fire Engines, and those few often suffer a total loss of their property by reason of the great length of time consumed in sending for and getting them into working order.

BUT NOT SO WITH THE FIRE EXTINGUISHER,

which, being kept charged and standing in your House, Store or Factory, is always Ready for Instant Service.

The fire can be extinguished and your property saved without loss or damage, or even an alarm of Fire.

The first few minutes of conflagration decide the fate of the property; a little fire is quickly put out, which, being suffered, rivers cannot quench.

THE EXTINGUISHER, being very simple in its operation, and entirely self-propelling, requires no previous skill or practice to operate it, and being so light, portable and self-acting, is capable of being used in any place, by any person, male or female.

It puts out all fires, arising from whatever cause.

You are saved from the ruin-ous water damage caused by large Engines.

You can effect insurance on your property

At Lower Rates,

if protected by the Extinguisher.

The Extinguisher is no humbug, as thousands of good men in Europe and America will testify. I have already put these little Engines into some of our best Factories and largest Schools in N. C.

No House, Store, Factory or Corporation is safe without them.

The price is as nothing, compared with the protection they afford.
